ABOUT AMY

Amy Spencer has taught a variety of book structures to students from as young as age four to adults. She has taught privately, to church groups, homeschooling groups and for eight years at the Riverside Art Museum. She is currently a non-traditional, full-time Art History major at UCR. You can see some of her work @aestusbookarts on Instagram.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Learn the basics of bookmaking and how to bind books using long stitch. This is an elegant, exposed-spine bookbinding technique that lends itself to creativity. Bookbinding basics will be covered, including what tools you need to make your own books at home. You will make a hardcover book using book cloth and your choice of gorgeous papers from around the world for the cover and high quality blank paper for the pages. This book is ideal to use as a guest book, photo album, or recipe book.

Materials Needed: An old magazine, a ruler, a bookbinding awl, a sharpened pencil or two and a bone folder.

Workshop is limited to 20 participants. Enrollment is for current paid Society for Calligraphy members only. Your membership must be current at time of sign-up as well as when class is held. No reservation will be held until your dues are current. If your membership lapses, you become ineligible and your space will be filled from the waiting list. Sign-ups are accepted in advance on a first come, first served basis. No refunds unless your place can be filled from a wait list. If you must cancel, please do so early enough for your place to be filled. For confirmation and prompt receipt of supply list, we recommend that your payment arrive no later than two weeks before the workshop. You do not have a spot in the workshop until you are notified by the coordinator.
